

FANS FOR PIG PENS, CATTLE SHEDS, POULTRY HOUSES

Livestock ventilation systems are typically roof mounted units designed to ensure best possible climate for cows, pigs, chickens.

Key selection criteria for these units are high efficiency at the lowest possible operating cost.

Our range of axial fans and ventilators enables us to select high efficiency solutions at a competitive price, while generating the high air volumes necessary to keep your livestock in the best possible condition.