

ITALYX: CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE IN ITALIAN INNOVATION AND TRADITION

HW VENTILATION AMONG THE FIRST TO RECEIVE PRESTIGIOUS CERTIFICATION FOR QUALITY, DETAIL, AND INNOVATION

Rescaldina, 25/06/2024

ItalyX is a new certification program for Italian companies, launched by Il Sole 24 Ore in collaboration with Confindustria. This certification recognizes companies that excel in conceiving, designing, innovating, and producing in line with the unique aspects of Italian tradition, surpassing mere product manufacturing. HW Ventilation is among the first to receive this prestigious certification, following a successful audit by an independent certification body based on stringent standards set by Il Sole 24 Ore.

HW Ventilation exemplifies the core values of Italian identity: HW Ventilation exemplifies the fundamental values of Italian identity: the pursuit of quality, meticulous attention to detail, selection of raw materials, and product innovation.
